“ Aaron was the best artist, tattoo artist, and musician...so intelligent. Jud has missed you so badly. He just found out you passed away and told me. The struggles were great during your life. Now, you are in the light to experience the peace and the unconditional love you always sought. God bless you. Send us a sign every now and then that you're still around. We will pray and send good vibes in our prayers. Till we meet again, dear soul.

“ Aaron was my ace for 25 years. He always checked to see if i was ok. Genuinely cared and loved his people. He was a tortured genius and a fashion icon. I'll love him forever and hope he'll be watching over me.

“ Aaron and I spent a lot of time together over the last year or so when he started working at taco bell with me. He was such a smart, and funny person. We shared a lot about our personal lives with each other and bickered like siblings sometimes. He was a really good friend and a great listener. I'm going to miss him so much. The world lost a genuinely beautiful soul. RIH brother, love ya.

To the family: I'm so sorry for your loss. I'll be praying for you. <3

“ Aaron was one of those people that burned the brightest when he was around people that matched his energy.

He was a friend. Coworker. Roommate. Fellow dreamer.

Aaron forced me out of my comfort zone and loved me as the weirdo I was. I cannot begin to recall the memories I have with him as they have been intrusively replaying in my brain for days on end.

What I can say is that Aaron has ALWAYS held a special place in my heart. That place is just greater now.

My thoughts are with those of you grieving his loss...
