“ This sweet girl has a piece of my heart. I remember when we started her piano and voice lessons. Many great memories working together. The last time I saw her, her daughter was a little baby. Even so, I still miss her. Love to her precious family. I was blessed just knowing her. Shirley.

“ Remembering what aa great Music teacher Amy was for my 3 children at Clark Lake Christian Academy. Amy always had a smile and encouraging things to say for those who could not carry a tune. She reflected the love of Jesus to all of us.

“ I choose to share a happy memory of Amy. I met Amy at the Ballah rd. Church. There were very few young ladies, Amy and I had a connection, one evening she spent the night with me, we were gonna go to the gym and workout the next day...oh we did, then we walked to Long John Silvers and pigged out. I love you Amy. Fly high my friend ♡
