

Amy M. Yeagle

August 6, 1975 - October 10, 2016

Amy Marie Yeagle, 41, of Johnstown, OH, lost her courageous fight against lymphoma on Monday, October 10th, 2016. She is now perfectly restored physically, mentally, and spiritually with her Savior the Lord. Amy was born August 6, 1975 to John and Susan Yeagle. She graduated from Big Walnut High School in Sunbury, OH in 1993 as salutatorian. She went on to attend both Ohio University and The Ohio State University. Amy worked in the Systems Department at Meijer for several years, enjoying the friendships she built with her co-workers. Amy was actively involved in ministry under Eastwood Seventh-Day Adventist Church and Fredericktown Seventh-Day Adventist Church. She enjoyed serving and caring for others and was a loyal and supportive friend to many. Amy enjoyed biking, running, rollerblading, and shopping. She was also an avid animal lover, enjoying the company of her beloved cat, Trooper, and rescuing multiple dogs and cats needing love and care until they found their forever home. She was known affectionately by those closest to her as Honey Bun, Big Bertha and Yeagle Bagel. Amy is survived by father and mother, John and Susan Yeagle of Johnstown, OH; sister, Julie Robinson and brother-in-law, Cody Robinson of Simpsonville, SC; and sister, Olivia Neel, brother-in-law, Scott Neel, and nephew, Christopher Neel of Thornville, OH. Visitation will be held on Friday, October 14th at 9:30am at Eastwood Seventh-Day Adventist Church, located at 6400 Sunbury Road, Westerville, OH with a funeral service to follow at 11:30am. Amy will be laid to rest at Green Hill Cemetery in Johnstown, OH. In lieu of flowers, please

“ I'm so sorry Yeagle family for your loss. I have so many wonderful memories of Amy. Working in Systems at Meijer with her was always a blast! We really had a great time traveling to Michigan to Grand open a new store. We also bowled on a league together. Will miss you forever Amy! - Scott
