

Ann Campbell Jarvis

December 9, 1941 - May 13, 2026

Odessa Ann Cambell Lotts Jarvis, born on December 9, 1941, in Augusta County, Virginia, passed away peacefully on the morning of May 12, 2026.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Otis Heatwole Campbell and Nellie Mae Brown; sister, Naomi Fisher; son, Scott Lotts; and first husband, James Lotts.

Ann is survived by her children, Jeff Lotts, Connie Woodson, Allan Lotts; and children adopted out, Becky and Cathy Temple, Michael Lotts, and Billy Lotts; 25 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

After marriage Ann and James moved to Florida, where they had their first four children before moving back to Virginia. She worked at the Stanley Furniture warehouse before becoming a driver for Al's Radio Cab and Limousine Service. She spent the last decades of her life with her son Allan and his family in Ohio. Ann loved spending time with family and spent her free time reading and watching her favorite books and movies. She was an avid Elvis fan her whole life.

Private gatherings to celebrate Ann's life will be held both in Ohio and Virginia, to be attended by her extensive family and many loved ones.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Ann Jarvis.
