November 14, 1941 - February 11, 2020

Barbara J. (Crum) Carrel, age 78 of New Plymouth, OH died on February 11, 2020. She was born on November 14, 1941 in Crum, W.Va. After high school graduation she moved to Columbus, OH where she met the love of her life on a blind date.

She is preceded in death by her husband of 47 years, Walter “Frank” Carrel; parents, Wetzel and Goldie (Evans) Crum; sister, Ann Buck and grandson, Bryan Carrel.

She is survived by her three children, Bruce (Jannine) Carrel, Alena (Charlie) Wotring and Wes (Sherry) Carrel and sister, Eva (Crum) Williams. Also left to cherish her memory are nine grandchildren: Brad and Brooke Carrel, Karissa (Zach) Thomas, Brittany (Robbie) Smith, Sean, Nik and Carlie Wotring, Chris (Amber) Carrel and Clay Carrel; and twelve great-grandchildren: Clayton, Cruz and Charlee Thomas, Blaine and Oakley Carrel, Robbie, Jordan, Brantlee, Carter and Kaylie Smith, Briella Ogg and Kash Wotring; as well as her nieces and nephew.

She loved to read romance novels, cooking, and spending time with her family; which included hosting and cooking for all major holidays for the entirety of her family. She was known as a “good cook” and passed that trait on to all three of her children. When she wasn’t cooking or reading, she loved to watch the Hallmark channel and complete crossword puzzles. She was dearly loved and will be missed greatly.

Per her wish, a caring cremation will take place and a celebration of life will be at a later date.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Barbara J. Carrel.

“ I’m so very sorry to hear this. I truly loved your Mom and Dad. One of my favorite memories of your Mom, is of her fried green tomatoes; I’ve never had any since, that have come close. And just sitting with her at the kitchen table, and talking and talking. I hope she and Frank are together and happy once more. Much love to Bruce, Alena, Wes, and their families.
