“ Penny started spending each Christmas with us in Texas way back in 2005, I believe. Her Grandma skills were top notch. She never missed an opportunity to play on the floor with Caity. Whether it was to color, build blocks or watch cartoons. She also passed on the tradition of baking Christmas cookies and I got to see first hand the amazing art work that was put on top of those cookies in icing by both Penny and Mike.

She moved to Fort Worth Texas around 2010 to Amelia Parc apartments and made many friends there. She quickly became activity director and encouraged people out to the pool as much as possible. After a health scare she moved closer to us at Colleyvine Ranch in Grapevine. Again, she made friends quickly and the staff just loved her. They appointed her in charge of greeting all the new residents, giving the a tour and making sure they felt welcome. That job was perfect for her. She also loved being in the choir and busy in the activities. We celebrated her 75th birthday there with cake, ice cream, Penny wearing a silly Birthday hat and surrounded by friends and family.

“ I remember when Penny showed up at my daughters dedication. She bought two books for her so my daughter could learn who God was. I still use the bible she gave me 12 years ago.
