

Beryl Winifred Marina Souslin

November 22, 1934 - September 20, 2025

Beryl Winifred Marina (Jones) Souslin, lovingly known as “Nanny”, passed away peacefully at home in Gahanna, Ohio, on September 20, 2025, at the age of 90.

Born in Bedford, England, Beryl came to the United States in 1964 and proudly called Gahanna home for more than six decades. She was preceded in death by her devoted husband of 56 years, Floyd “Pete” Souslin.

Beryl never met a stranger. She loved gardening, garage sales, and scratch-off lottery tickets. She could turn a quick trip to the casino into a full comedy set. Her greatest joy was family. If you were one of hers, you knew it, and you were probably well fed with a side of laughter.

She is survived by her children, Gary (Debbie), Karen (DJ), and Sheralee.

Her legacy lives on through her grandchildren: Richard (Nicole), Stuart (Amy), Trinity (Will), Liberty (Curtis), Destiny, Ashleigh (TR), Ryan (Amanda), and Eric (Kara); and great-grandchildren, Jayden, Javon, Leilani, Trey, Mason, Kaila, Austin, Colton, Bryan, Jenna, Elijah, Holden, Elliana, Nathan, Oliver, Abigail, Thomas, and Grace.

Nanny will be remembered for her wit, her spirit, and her unapologetic way of being herself.

Family and friends are invited to gather at First Baptist Church of Gahanna, 520 Havens Corner Road, Gahanna, Ohio 43230 on Monday, September 29th, 2025.

Visitation begins at 11am with a service to be held at 12pm. Burial will follow at Mifflin Cemetery, 155 Olde Ridenour Road, Gahanna, Ohio 43230.

In lieu of flowers, consider a small act of kindness in her honor. If you happen to celebrate with a lucky scratch-off, she would approve!

“ Trick or treating and then going to nans for an “after party” will always be one of my favorite memories of when the grandkids were little! We would all go out trick or treating and then end at nans for food and hot chocolate! She always had something to eat for us. Her motto was “the more the merrier!” Trick or treating was never the same after we moved to Texas! We missed the after party at nans!
