

Bob Lee Binns

March 29, 1957 - September 2, 2023

Bobby Lee Binns, age 66, of Columbus Ohio, died peacefully on Saturday morning, September 2, 2023. His long battle with Parkinson's and Dementia ended as he slept peacefully. Bob was preceded in death by his father, Don Binns; mother, Betty Binns; and sister, Brenda Biegler. Bob is survived by his very loyal and supportive son, Ben Binns; daughter-in-law, Kimberly Binns; their two children; Bob's beautiful grandchildren, Layla and Bianca Binns; brothers, Bill, Brian, Bruce Binns; sister, Becky Mahoney; former wife, Cheryl Binns and her son, Scott Binns. Also survived by the many nieces, nephews, cousins; best friend, Jamie; and many other friends Bob loved.

Bobby was born in Columbus, Ohio and was one of six siblings-Billy, Becky, Brenda, Brian, and Bruce. He grew up on the west side of Columbus and went graduated from West High School. As a young man he was an avid concert enthusiast and loved to have a good time. He kept a record of the 600 and some odd concerts he attended with his good friends Doug, Stacey and others.

In Bob's early twenties, he was introduced to construction work with his brother-in-law, David Frebault and found he had a knack for masonry. He soon created his own business and founded Bob Binns Masonry, where he built beautiful homes with stone specifically. He was very well known in Columbus for his professionalism and artwork like creations of stonework. He was even sectioned in a piece in the Columbus Dispatch for his craftsmanship barring a picture of him cutting stone with his 10-pound hammer.

Bob later married Cheryl Binns and purchased a home with her and her son, Scott Binns and later had a son of his own, Benjamin Binns. Bob was a history buff and loved reading. He took great pleasure in knowing about humanity's history and our evolution. Bob loved camping, fishing and being outdoors. He enjoyed going to the Ohio Power camping grounds. Early in his life, Bob and his brothers would go camping at Ohio Power together. The brothers passed down the tradition to each generation and this became a staple for all the Binns boys growing up. All Binns boys were lucky to share this family experience and the joy of camping together, where many memories were created. Bob was an avid sports fan from a young age into adulthood. Although he loved all sports, his passion was football for the Browns and Buckeyes. His passion for the Browns was special because he shared it with his brother Brian and passed it down to his son Ben and his brother Scott. That passion for the Browns turned into a lifelong bond he could share with his brother and son. They would get together for every Browns game for the past 20 years which Bob shared with his brother for even longer.

Bob was an incredible and loving father. Anyone who knew Bob would tell you that he was the kindest, patient, and easy-going person. Everyone who knew Bob loved Bob. His intellect, integrity, and loving nature touched everyone and were passed on to each person he developed a relationship with. Bob will be truly missed and always loved and thought of fondly. Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Bob Binns.

“ Bob, I only met you two times. Once when Ben and Kim were in high school (dating) and once when Ben and Kim got married, you were kind and caring to the both of them. You raised a good son (so you had to be a good father/man). Wished I could've known you more and met you more often. Layla talks about you all the time to me.

RIP

“ Bob always greeted me with a “Hey Kim” and I would respond “Hey Bob”. You were the ultimate gentleman towards me and you had the most interesting stories and fun facts to share. I remember one day you randomly and jokingly, busted out with the “Floss dance”, that shockingly you were pretty good at. I remember you drove me and Ben to our high school graduation, I remember you let me intrude on your father & son tradition of watching boxing fights, and you both even taught me how to keep a boxing score card, so I could be apart of your fun. I remember when Ben told you I was pregnant w/ Layla and Ben said what do you want the baby to call you, and you quickly said “ Well I don't know, Pop Pop I guess”. And Pop Pop you are and will always be. Thank you Bob for being the best Pop Pop you could be, no matter how you felt. And thank for always being so kind to me. We will never let the girls forget what kind of man there Pop Pop was and how he loved them so much. And would never stop picking them up 😊. When I think of you, I will always choose to celebrate your life and remember “ Hey Kim” with a smile 😊.

“ Bob was the first dad I had that was in my life for a full time gig. It was tough for, I think, the both of us at first. I never had an adult male in my life and he didn't have any children yet. But he was kind to me, never was bothered that I was around, which a little kid can worry about. He wasn't my father, but he became my dad and I was happy about that. After his and my mom's divorce, Bob and I still maintained a great relationship and I still looked at him as my dad. I'm in construction and when talk of masons come up, I always say, " my dad is/was a stone mason. One of the best too". Growing up and working with him, was my first exposure to the saying, "always do a good job and you won't have trouble finding work". As I got older we didn't see each other as often, yet when we did, it was always like we just seen each other yesterday. The best times were always watching the Browns game with him because he was so knowledgeable and knew a lot of the team history, which I find interesting. His door was always open to me and he always seemed genuinely happy to see me every time. To wrap this novel up, I loved him and I believe he loved me and I'm going to miss him. He was a very good man who's going to be tremendously missed by so many.

“ Bobby my Handsome Brother had a wonderful disposition, so mild mannered, at least with me. My best years with him were the past 5 years where I was able to be with him during his life style changes with the two diseases he had. We shared many special moments together, me decorating his rooms at the beginning of each Holiday Season, hoping to bring Joy to him. We grow up, we grow apart, I have learned that you always need to maintain a close relationship with all family members. Thank you Bobby for letting me spend time with you and sharing memories. I love you forever and will think of you often. You are with your beloved Family Members that have passed as well. Love you so much, sister Becky.
