“ She was the only person in the world that I ever called my Grandma (my other I called Nanny). To me...she was simply awesome. Some of the best memories of my life were with her. These may not mean a lot to some people, but they are memories that mean so much to me and they will be with me forever.

Butterscotch Pie (God himself is enjoying it right now), Yahtzee, Kismet, Atari, the Ice Cream truck, lawn darts, frisbee, beautiful flowers and shrubs, Grandad's perfect lawn, the flag pole 🇺🇸, WHITE CASTLE, their garden, the Buckeyes!, strawberry preserves, candy, Haagen-Daz, squirrels, rabbits, Grandma's chipmunks cardinals and blue jays, the best one car garage ever because it had all the cool stuff in it, croquet, the Christmas tree, seeing my aunts and uncles and cousins ❤️, the trophy case, the wall of pictures, the pool table, darts, an endless supply of Coke and Sprite and a bunch of other options in the downstairs frig, the Clippers, the Ohio State Fair (the double nachos and cheese that Grandma let me have when Grandad said no 😂), just sitting next to Grandma on the couch, the four-course breakfast every morning complete with a glass of milk a glass of orange juice and a glass of cranberry juice, money falling out of cards and them greasing your palm before you left, the piano, singing, her smile, her love, feeling comfortable and secure.....I could go on, but I've run out of tissues. I love you Grandma. I know you are up above laughing and singing and dancing with Grandad. Til we see each other again.

“ During the “Senior Prom” Bonnie and I danced and sang to the song “Can’t help falling in love with you”. Bonnie stayed seated in the chair and took both of my hands and we swayed together singing along with music. The song and lyrics were stuck in her head and even as we walked back to memory care at the end of the evening, we were singing it again. For a couple of days I went at lunch time and we sang and hummed the refrain again. Several other residents joined in and we were all enjoying ourselves.
