“ *I was proud to call Bryan a good friend. He was always open and honest in business & personal relationships. He always made me feel comfortable and special while in his presence. I felt many of our mutual friends didn't realize how intelligent and talented he was as a writer. He allowed me to read some of the essays and poems he had written and I was impressed by his insights, phrasing and his creative ability to communicate, educate and entertain. I must admit I was envious of his taste in partners and their relationships. I really liked him very much and I will miss him dearly.
