

Charles Allen Valentine

October 1, 1960 - January 13, 2026

Chuck Valentine, 65, of Coshocton, Ohio, and formerly of Morgan County, Ohio, passed away on January 13, 2025, at Riverside Methodist Hospital after several illnesses infected his body.

Mr. Valentine was a retired employee of Gould Foil in McConnelsville and had worked various other jobs.

He was born October 1, 1960, in Zanesville, Ohio, to James and Nellie Valentine. He is survived by son, Blaine (Jessica) Valentine; daughter, Melissa (Tom Cain) Hammer; four grandchildren, Peyton and Addison Valentine, Trace (Emily) Hammer, Levi (Micalah) Hammer; and six great-grandchildren.

He is also survived by one brother, James Valentine; and three sisters, Karol Jordan, Darla Hissong, and Mary Woodward.

He was preceded in death by five brothers, Ray, Tom, Terry, Randy, and Ronnie Valentine; and one sister, Doris Voshel. He also has many nieces and nephews.

Chuck battled several demons in his mid-years of life which did much damage to him, but he eventually received Jesus Christ in his heart and his life. He found home through Allwell in Coshocton, Ohio, where he became part of a group home and met his best friend, baseball watching companion, and fishing buddy, Jimmy Demko.

A caring cremation was taken place by Day Funeral Service in Columbus, Ohio per his request.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Charles Valentine.
