“ my brother was a good guy he drove me crazy sometimes because he would ask me things he already knew the answer to. He wanted to do alot like go places and see things but he never had any money to do anything he didn't drive or have a car so he always just made the best of what he had. alot of people just knew him as the guy that walked the highway out by Massisville he did that just so he could be out alot of people have been good to him over the years thank you to those people he loved country music and always had his earbuds in singing and waving his arms around like a crazy guy iam sure alot of people thought he was but he wasn't thats just who he was I will miss him dearly
