Chris, your passing was so unexpected, however, we cannot control God's timing when he calls his children home.

The comfort we have in that you are no longer here, is that you and your body are no longer in any pain, you have a new body in Christ. You gained your wings and flying high with all those that have gone on before you, especially, Marjoan (wife), you loved and missed her terribly. However, now you are eternally joined together. I thank God that you were my big brother and all the fun times we shared together growing up.

Our big brother (Harold) was by your side to lay eyes upon you and your niece Nikki prayed committal prayer. Also, Ms. Zee and Ms. Denise (High Banks Care Center) was there to share in your memorial. They both will miss you terribly, as you left a presence upon them and you will for always be remembered.

Thanking God for allowing you into his Heaven to reside for eternity. May you rest in His eternal peace. Love you forever!

Rest In Power xoxoxox
