“ *Clarissa had the biggest heart in this entire world, she openly just cared for everyone around her. I'll always remember our younger concert sessions to Britney Spears and going to the movies at midnight with our family, just for us to have the movie theater to ourselves with our Dads snoring. I'll always think of her up in the skies dancing with her Momma. We miss her terribly down here
I love you little sister. Save me a spot up there close to you!*
