

Dakota Jameson McQuirt

February 18, 2000 - August 24, 2020

Dakota Jameson McQuirt born February 18, 2000 passed away August 24, 2020.

Dakota Jameson McQuirt is the coolest guy in our family. At the age of 20, a tragic accident occurred. On August 16, 2020, when the gun fell off the hutch, Dakota put his 20-month-old son, Xander Jameson McQuirt, behind the door and was protecting his family from the bullet. The bullet entered his face destroying his eye, both lobes of his brain, frontal skull and many face and skull bones were shattered.

Dakota was in the ICU at Grant Medical Center for 8 days, alive, despite all odds and medical text. The trauma team said that most people who take a 40-caliber bullet through the head do not even make it the hospital. He was able to do a few things that the team said should be impossible considering how severe the injury was.

On August 24, 2020 at 6:38 PM Dakota was declared brain dead.

He is survived his awesome son, Xander Jameson McQuirt; beautiful fiancé, Cassie Uting; mother and stepfather, Lillie A. Scott & Michael Duncan Jr.; siblings, Colton N. Scott (Dakota's best friend), Stella L. Scott (Dakota's favorite person to annoy) and Andrew Scott (both Andrew and Dakota have a loud opinion and made sure each other knew what they thought about many subjects); grandparents, Eddie and Barb Jordan, Mark and Laurie Samczuk, Flava (Curly) and Bonnie Stepp, Mike and Donna Cooke and Kenneth A. Miller; biological father, R. McQuirt; many wonderful, caring and supportive friends that have become family, Ethan Fuler, Sara, Zoey, Taylor, Big B and many, many more; lots of loving uncles, aunts, cousins and many people that become a key part of our life.

Many thanks to the ICU staff from Grant Medical Century, the Lifeline team and many others who are keeping us in their thoughts and prayers.

Dakota was a registered organ donor and saved 2 people locally. He is a hero for protecting his fiancé and son that day and giving life to others as he was losing his own.

He is preceded in death by Becky Stepp, Kimberly Moutes and a handful of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Dakota was a caring, loving, hands-on, protective, never miss any moments kind of father since the birth of his son, Xander Jameson McQuirt.

He was a loving, caring, supportive, protective, and selfless dad, fiancé, son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousins and friends. Dakota always stood up for what he felt was right no matter what others thought of him. He stood up for others if their voice was not heard. He was a hard worker.

Dakota loves being a dad, brother, fishing, playing Xbox, camping, boating, baseball, going to Kings Island, weed and spending time with family.

He is loved and missed by many!

Memories of Dakota will keep him alive in our hearts. Family and friends will complete a bucket list in his honor ... Fly high Kota! You can now go fishing off the moon!

Celebration of life will be held at his mother and stepfather's in West Columbus, Ohio. Everyone is welcome! Please text Lillie for more information at 614-517-2804.

In lieu of flowers, we are asking that you please consider bringing his son, Xander, match box cars, push cars or please bring an annual type of flower that will be planted to be seen every year.

Fly high Dakota Jameson McQuirt!

“ you was always there , I never thought once you would be taken from us , I miss you like crazy , you was nothing but full of life and so amazing , you took care of us even tho we was jus your siblings , yes we fought but no matter what I would of took the bullet for you , if anyone deserved anything it was you . I remember you taking me and mawmaw out to dinner . Me coming over to help clean your house and help with Xander, how independent you was , one of my favorites are you making that little haunted house on the front porch because Halloween was your favorite or when you can in my room with shorts under your jeans and your jeans were really low so I told you “kota pull up your pants” and you pulled your jeans all the way down and walked around acting stupid , you was the light as soon as you walk in a room , I miss you like crazy and I always be thinking how different it would be if you was still here , it's crazy because I wish you was here to see me grow as a person and see how older I got and omg Xander he's gonna be 5 this year , I jus wish you never died . You bought us food with the last 10$ of money you had because you cared and I know if nothing bad would of happened to you I would be living in your house rn and you would be taking care of us jus like you did when I was 11 . I know we was mean something's but I would take everything mean I ever said to u , I hope u know that , and I hope your proud of me bub, I love you and yo ur memory will always go on

“ I still am having a hard time accepting my nephew is gone . But I know one day I'll get to see you again. I miss our little chats we had on Facebook messenger. The last chat we had was you asking me when I come back to visit to get hold of you to see Xander. Hope you know I got to see Xander and he is the sweetest little boy I've ever seen . I'll never forget when I first saw Xander he looked at me and ran up to me and wanted held . I was in tears it was like he knew who I was immediately. I'm gonna miss you

Sometimes I think about a month before u passed and our plans to hang out , how you was jus fine one day full of life and the next you was so hurt . I think about you all the time and I really wish you was here bc I really need my big brother . You always cared , and I couldn't thank u enough, I miss you picking me up and letting me clean your house for my tickets to kings island too bad we never got to go 💔 . I jus hope your proud of me and I hope your with me thru my hard times it's really been on my mind and I jus wish you wasn't taken as soon as you was because you was the only one who really cared . U made sure we didn't go to bed hungry , you had 10$ left in your name and you went out to get stuff to make all of us dinner , you were nothing but a kind soul and I'll miss u forever . I love you so damn much and it feels so weird without you every birthday and Christmas especially Halloween without you . I remember when you made that little haunted house on the front porch . I'll never forget all the life you had in you bub
