“ Delora and Bernie became our great friends in South Texas many years ago. We had such fun going to the dog races, over to Mexico for a meal and Margaritas and the greatest time was when they came to our home in East Texas one Christmas holiday on their way south. When Christmas cards failed to come I feared that age and health had prevented Delora from writing as she had faithfully done for many years. These two people were a complete joy and to have had their friendship was a true blessing. God bless all you children. I know you miss them both. Ginger Jordan

“ I am so grateful for all the wonderful memories I have with my Grandma!!! She taught me so many things...driving and playing cards, to name a couple. I would love spending weeks with her in the summer and then when I became an adult, my cousin and I, would go to her house every other weekend for dinner and playing cards!!! I love my Grandma so very much and will miss her deeply!!!

"The mother of your mother or father; a combination of warmth & kindness, laughter & love; a person who overlooks your faults, praises your every success and encourages your dreams." She was all that and much much more!!! So thankful for this amazing woman to be my Grandma. ♥♥♥
