“ I never truly got to know Don. We saw each other on casual occasions. I always knew him to be very personable! He was a pretty interesting guy. When we talked, it was on a variety of topics. The last time I saw Don was at Anne's place when Brenda and I went to visit Aunt Maggie. He was pleasant as usual. I know he was a good soul. Sometimes it takes someone's passing to realize that I really did myself a disservice by not taking the time to know him better. Rest in peace Don. You are now in the best health ever, with our Lord.

“ One of the first memories I have from when my wife and I moved into our new house was our neighbor Don coming over to help shovel our driveway. He (and his loving girlfriend) took an interest in projects we were working on. He helped get some wood for a table I was building and let me borrow some materials to finish the project. He was a friendly and agreeable guy and I will miss him.

I was High school buddies with Donnie as a matter of fact you could say we were best freinds. I worked at his dad's shop and we would go out partying and to concerts in his work van. We went to Alice Cooper, Bad Company, Journey and the infamous Van Halen Black Sabbath concert In Cincinnati and that my freinds was just the tip of the iceberg. We did this alot of times with our other partner in crime Steve Jury whom also passed away in 2019...Life was good back then because of freinds like Donnie and the time really flew by....I'm sorry I didn't stay in touch ...He was one of the good ones. I'll see you in Rockand Roll Heaven brother ...Say hi to Bon....
