“ Aunt Marge and family.....can't really find the right words to convey the sad feelings I have for all of you having to go through your loss of Uncle Don. What a guy...what a character. I'm grateful for all the good memories made with such a wonderful family. I'm so glad I got to meet with you all in Yankton last year. Always thought it was funny how Don would wonder at why so many people thought he and Bob looked and acted so much alike. To say he will be missed is an understatement. Love, hugs, and my deepest sympathies to all of you. Chuckie

“ The pictures I uploaded are the only ones I have of Uncle Don. All from family get-togethers. Sadly, many photos have been lost through the years. Hope this brings a few more happy memories.

“ I remember the day of my Dad's funeral, several of the cousins and I were out in the yard. Vicki grabbed my arm and pointed back at the house. Uncle Don had his arm around my Mom, giving her more of the love our family shared. Our family used to be very close, but as our parents aged, so did we and we have drifted apart. I miss those days of family bonding and the comfort of family. I heart goes out to all our family and friends who are missing our Uncle Don. God Bless you and comfort you as we learn to cope with another missing piece of our hearts. Love you all!

“ I remember when we adopted my baby sister, Don showed up at our door with some baby shoes, what a sweet gesture, and kind man.

“ I remember the first time I met Don, it was at the food court at the mall. Vicki told her mom and Dad I was her new friend/ sister and from that moment on they accepted me like family. Don was one of the most loving and caring people I have ever met and he will truly be missed. I was surely blessed to have known him.

“ Dad and mom would always take us traveling. I got to spend my 14th birthday in Canada! Dad and i would go for walks and on my bday we walked through a cloud plus I got to slide down a glacier! Mom had hidden a bday cake from me and dad went and got us ice cream! What a fabulous birthday.
