

Donavan Ray Greene

April 14, 1998 - December 7, 2022

Donavan Ray Greene was born on April 14, 1998, in Dickson, Tennessee to Wendy Veleno and Harold R. Greene. Donavan lost his battle with depression on December 7, 2022. He is survived by his mother, Wendy Veleno; father, Anthony Veleno; brothers, Christian and Ashton Veleno; children, Aspyn and Thatcher Greene; grandparents; Vickie Armbrust; Donald and Sandra Manning and Cynthia and Chris Veleno; aunts and uncles, Barbara Nelson, Matthew Manning, Beth and Charlie Landis; cousins, Jayson, Joey (Brittany), Jenna, Meagan, David, Danielle, Hannah, Haleigh, Sarah, Josiah, Jacob and Jaxon.

He is preceded in death by his grandfather, Harold E. Greene; grandfather, Keith Armbrust; and aunt, Crystal Hall.

Donavan had such a love for his children, Aspyn and Thatcher Greene. He was loved by so many, and he will be forever missed. He was extremely talented in so many ways. He mastered anything he had an interest in. He had a passion for so many forms of art such as drawing, painting, tattoos, 3-D printing and creating oddities. He enjoyed skateboarding, fishing, kayaking, fire poi, and making everyone around him smile. He was fighting a battle, and no one could see how hard his fight truly was. He is no longer hurting, and we will see him again.

Family to hold celebration of life. Please check back for details. Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Donavan Greene.

Tribute Wall

DW

“ Donavan was a sponsee, friend and beautiful human who I miss dearly. His light was infectious and the loss the flow community feels is indescribable. I will never forget this kiddo 😊

danielle weiler - December 19, 2022 at 12:26 PM

VH

“ My husband (Paul Howard) is a 1st cousin of his grandfather Donald Manning. Donovan has been to our house a couple times. Including one time when his great grandpa, his grandpa, his mother, him and his daughter where all here at the same time. I love that day. We ran into him once in Mt Vernon and he stopped us and talked. He was such a sweet guy. My love goes out to his mother and brothers.

Vickie Howard - December 16, 2022 at 05:40 PM