“ I am so very happy to say that Doris was the best neighbor anyone could ask for and I was so very lucky to also have her as my son Jimmy's babysitter. It was so very hard for me to move out of the neighbor and away from her. If we have to look at good in all of this God received another angel. I am so truley sorry for the familes loss and my prayers are going out to them. Love you all. Barb Allen and family.
