“ Dwight and I became fast friends in somewhat unusual fashion. His wife Debra was my first wife many years ago (1978-85). i know of no one more devoted to someone than Dwight was to Deb and I know, because of what i witnessed and because he told me so just a few short months ago, that he was much more than looking forward to joining her in heaven. He was a terrific person, shaped by an extremely interesting and challenging life and finally, he can rest with his Lord and Savior. My soul is at peace for these two soulmates. God bless them both.
