

Elizabeth Ann Hoover

February 16, 1949 - June 24, 2025

Elizabeth Ann Hoover, lovingly known as "Liz," passed away peacefully on June 24, 2025, in Gahanna, Ohio. She was 76 years old.

Born in Chicago, Illinois, on February 16, 1949, Elizabeth's life was one of remarkable resilience, compassion, and love. From a childhood marked by adversity, she grew into a fiercely devoted mother, grandmother, and sister, always striving to give her family the nurturing home she never had. Her unwavering strength and dedication helped shape generations.

Elizabeth was known for her grace, her signature style, and her warmth. A lover of tradition and holidays, she brought joy to every celebration—especially Christmas, where her legendary cookie marathons and dazzling decorations created lasting memories. She was a devoted Elvis Presley fan, and her passion for his music became a part of her family's soundtrack, especially on cherished trips to Myrtle Beach.

She is survived by her husband and lifelong friend, Joseph Hoover, with whom she shared decades of memories and a deep familial bond. She is also survived by her four children: Suzanne Legg (Ronald), Amy Delpozo, Lisa Hoover, and Ryan Hoover. Her memory continues through her grandchildren: Joseph Strapp, Ciara Wilber (Christopher), Joshua Hubbard, Paige Hubbard, and Bardot Hoover, as well as her great-grandchildren: Rylee Hubbard, Makayla Wilber, Laura Wilber, and Zakiah Hubbard.

Elizabeth is also survived by her beloved sister, Anna "Mimi" Cramer (Bill), and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews—all of whom she held close in her heart. She was preceded in death by her mother, Betty Morris (née Linley); her stepfather, Clarence "Jack" Morris; her sisters, Nanci Biggerstaff and Constance "Connie" Odom; and her brother-in-law, David Odom.

Elizabeth had a magnetic presence, an open heart, and a deep sense of purpose. Her greatest joy came from spending time with her children and grandchildren, gardening, dancing, sharing stories, and offering unwavering encouragement. Her legacy of compassion extended beyond people—in her later years, she devoted herself to rescuing and fostering animals in need, especially cats.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in Elizabeth's honor to Angels Assisting Felines, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit rescue located in Blacklick, Ohio.

A celebration of life will be organized in the coming months. Friends and loved ones will be invited to gather in her memory—to laugh, cry, share stories, and honor the extraordinary woman who gave so much to so many.

To Honor Elizabeth's Love of Animals: Donations in her name can be made to Angels Assisting Felines via the QR code attached. Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Elizabeth Hoover.
