

Eric David Gilgien

February 17, 1992 - September 9, 2021

Eric David Gilgien went home to join his Heavenly Father on September 9, 2021. He was born February 17, 1992 in Lancaster, Ohio to Jodie Staley and Kevin Gilgien. He graduated from Amanda Clearcreek High School in 2011. Eric was always laughing, cracking jokes and sarcasm (LOL). He loved life, and was always a happy go lucky person. Eric was a hard worker. He was employed at JSET Automated Technologies as a Control Tech. Eric wouldn't settle for less and he was always trying to succeed more out of life than what he had.

Eric loved spending time with his son Riley, taking him to dinosaur places, playing XBOX, spending time with his niece and nephews. He put a light on a lot of people's lives.

Eric is preceded in death by his uncle, Jeffrey A Pierce.

Eric is survived by his son, Riley Alan Gilgien; parents, Jodie Staley and Kevin Gilgien; sisters, Emily Jane Gilgien, Ashley Renee Jimmo (Gilgien), Alyssa Mae Triola; nieces and nephews, Zarah, Jay, Jerriq, Nyree and Olivianna, Avah, Waylon, and Reames; grandparents, David and Linda Pierce; aunt, Sherry Pierce; and cousins.

Eric will be missed and loved.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Eric D. Gilgien.

“ There’s not enough words to describe how much I loved him. Eric knew how to test my last nerve but he also knew how to make me laugh uncontrollably. He knew how to make me mad and how to make me happiest I had ever been. We had our ups and downs, good and bad days, but I wouldn’t trade those memories for anything. Eric was the best father to Riley and my children and they all 3 loved him unconditionally. You will always be in my heart Eric. Now and forever. Rest easy and I will see you someday soon.

“ He was the best brother ❤️ He always knew what to say no matter the situation. His laugh alone would light up the room. He was this funny, kind, loving person. I will forever cherish him, he was a very strong person mentally no matter what he was going through he always pulled through I was always so proud of him. He was a person you could go to for everything no matter what it was he was always there. He taught me how to forgive and how to not stress about EVERY little thing. He was one of my favorite people in this lifetime I would go to him about everything.

“ Eric was an incredible human being and father to his son. We met on an app he posted videos on called tik tok, and he grew a huge fan base and a few close friends. I was one of those friends. Although our friendship was from a distance, he still impacted my life more than he or anyone else will ever know. When life was tough, he would reach out and I would be there for him as he did for me. His kindness, his humor, and his fantastic personality always brought me out of my dark spaces. He was an Angel without his wings on earth, now he's got his wings and a halo up in the sky. One of my favorite memories with Eric was when I commented on one of his videos and told him he was treasure planet. He told me that comment really made him happy, and almost made him happy cry. Thank you so much for everything my friend. I will miss our conversations, our laughs, our cries, and everything in between. Rest easy Eric, we love you, miss you, and will never forget you.

“ Back when Eric was a young boy and I was married to his father who is also the dad to my beautiful daughter Alyssa. He was always A very rambunctious wonderful kid when they would come over for the weekend him and Emily you could pretty much entertain Eric with anything LOL. I would give him some small pieces of two by fours a handful of nails and a hammer that kid played for hours. He also enjoyed playing kickball with our little dog we had at that time name sweetie he was just an all-around amazing and great kid a pleasure to have around. Thank you for the wonderful memories and thank you for always being there for Alyssa Love you lots baby and we are all going to miss you forever. 🌻🌻
