

Faith Ann Sciacca

April 14, 1961 - February 25, 2025

Faith Ann (Conley) Sciacca, age 63, passed away peacefully in her home in Columbus on February 25, 2025. With her husband Tony, daughters, Angela and Ashley and grandson, Leim all by her side helping her push through to the end, she lost her battle with kidney cancer.

Faith was born in Honolulu, Hawaii to Harriet and Jethro on April 14, 1961.

Faith was beautiful, kind, loving, caring, funny, and had a great sense of humor. She had the most beautiful smile that lit up a room when she walked in. She loved to joke around and have fun. Faith's legacy is one of unconditional love and dedication to her family. She was a wife, mom and grandma who dedicated her life to taking care of her family. She was sweet and quiet but made sure she got her point across when it mattered. She was very smart and could do just about anything she put her mind to.

Left to cherish her memory her husband, Tony of 40 years; daughters, Ashley, Angela (Chuck), and Thera; son in law, Eric; the proud booboo (grandma) of Leim and several other grandchildren; siblings, Allen, Amanda, Julie, and Charlene; several nieces & nephews, many cousins, friends and her beloved dog, Chloe.

She was greeted in heaven by her first-born baby boy, Keith; her parents,

Harriet & Jethro; and sister, Connie.

A celebration of life will be held around the time of her birthday in April. The actual date and time will be announced on family's social media pages.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Faith Sciacca.

“ I first and foremost want to express my sincere thoughts and prayers for Tony and the girls. I am so sad to to lose my sister but I also know she is rejoicing in heaven. I will miss her beautiful face and silly personality. I will forever cherish the memories growing up with her. She was loved by many and was a very forgiving person. She held no grudges and was friendly to everyone she came into contact with. She was so unbelievably strong through her cancer battle and hung on until her little body gave in. I will miss her terribly and I know I will reunite with her again some day. Love you Faithy. I miss you so so much.

“ My little sister Faith ,I will miss you so much, especially the bantering back and forth. We loved making fun of each other ! I will miss that.i gave her the nickname Monkey Butt. So can imagine the type of memes we sent each other. My sister fought hard during her battle with cancer , she never gave up hope. Now she's in heaven restored to the beautiful woman I Knew and love. I'm sure she's up there scheming to get back at me when we meet again. Until then, she's in my heart and will be missed terribly. Rest in peace sis and much love . Mandy

“ I hope it's ok that I'm posting this but I felt the need to share how I feel about your mom. I am Keith's aunt. I was just a little girl when Faith and my older brother Jeff had "Keefers" and I experienced the heart wrenching loss of the sweet little 3 month old brother you never met.

Time went on, years flew by and one day...

I was so grateful to reconnect with your mom through Facebook. I have always had the fondest memories of her. You are right...she did have the cutest smile. She was quiet and SWEET and always so kind to me. When they first started dating, I was about nine years old (see winter coat photo below for reference), I had acquired a big ole nasty snarl in my hair. My hair was long and I didn't have a care in the world to brush it. Just wanted to run around the neighborhood with my bestie at the time. Faith saw the enormous tangle and sat on the bed beside me and patiently combed out that mess one little section at a time until it was smooth again. I've always had a very soft spot in my heart for her and was so saddened by the recent news. She loved you girls so much it was evident. Thanks for being there for her. ❤️ God bless you all.
