Gary always found funerals to be morose and felt lives should be celebrated with food, drinks, and music. Therefore, in lieu of traditional funeral services, we ask that you make your favorite meal, grab your favored drink, put on some of your preferred tunes, and relax while thinking fondly on your memories of Gary. Gary was a very social man and the family wishes to thank all the people who brought joy to his life. From long term friends to all the filkers and Marcon friends to his CAS buddies – especially the “Old Timers” who got together for lunch, you all brought something to his life. For the many smiles and memories, we thank you.
