“ I am so saddened to hear of Georgia's passing . He was definitely a mentor and a friend for me as we worked together at COTA for many years George was a brilliant man and I learned much from him. This is a big loss for his wife, family and all that knew him. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Thoughts and prayers for George and his family as you say your final goodbyes. It looks like he had a very productive life, a loving family and many friends.. I saw his notice in the Boston Globe and remember him from the time when he was first in the service. I lived just around the corner on Forest St. and was closer to Fred in age and mischievousness. May good memories fill the emptiness caused by the loss of his physical presence in your lives
