

George F. Robinson Jr.

November 26, 1959 - July 26, 2024

George Floyd Robinson Jr. was born on November 26, 1959. He was a musician, a father and a real life a$$hole. He was very proud of it. He was the life of every party, even those he wasn't invited to. He was outspoken, sarcastic and generous to the most extreme fault. He organized many charities and auctions to help those in need and took in every stray that walked past his door. There was always room for one more at his table. George truly never knew a stranger. He was a diehard Michigan fan, a sci-fi nerd and a no-bake cheesecake enthusiast. He knew every step to The Time Warp. He always had a guitar in one hand and a drink in the other. He was the front man of two bands, Explorer and American Dream. He aspired to hear his songs on the radio. He loved Godzilla, baked beans and pistachio pudding. He loved to sing, play guitar and fight with people on the internet. What he loved most of all though, were his daughters and grandchildren. And cheap vodka. He loved cheap vodka. He made the transition to the afterlife on July 26, 2024 to join his mother, Betty; father, George; brother, Richard; and sister, Chrissy. His best friends John Ward and Dave Straight are also there with him at the after(life) party. His memory will continue to thrive through his daughters, Heather and Patty and their mother, Deb; his grandchildren, Ray, Charles, Leela, Brandon, Eleanor and Ruby; siblings, Tabitha, Stephen and Corrina; nieces, Miranda and Michelle; and nephews, Adam, Anthony, Christopher, Richard, Nick and Josh. George didn't measure the success of a person's life in trinkets, diamonds or gold. He measured it by friends who were with him until the end, and because of that- he died a very wealthy soul.

George didn't care much for flowers, but he cared deeply about human rights.
In lieu of flowers, per George's wishes, he would want you to vote for Harris in the 2024 election.

“ I'll always remember you as my big brother.
You were always looking out for me, I'll miss our phone calls with your great laugh.
You always said I love you before you would hang the phone up.
I miss you and I know what reunion you are having in heaven with Mom, Richard, Chrissy.
You and I were always close as siblings.
I feel so alone n this earth without all of you.
R. I. P. Big brother
I love you always
