

Glenna Fay Endicott

October 11, 1976 - May 13, 2022

Glenna Fay Hatfield Endicott passed away on Friday, May 13, 2022, after a long battle with addiction.

Glenna was born on October 11, 1976, to Glen and Betty Hatfield. She graduated from Marion-Franklin High School in 1995 where she focused on administrative studies. After graduation she successfully held positions at several local organizations. Glenna enjoyed sharing her memories of growing up on Lock Avenue in South Columbus and deeply loved her parents, family and friends. Glenna was a diehard Cleveland Browns fan and proudly wore her Browns attire, win or lose.

Glenna is survived by her sister, Karen (David) King of Marysville, Ohio; her sister Renna Houghton of Hilliard, Ohio; her nephew Kyle (Sarah) King of Westerville, Ohio; ex-husband Howard Endicott of Columbus, Ohio and companion Dwight Hinkle of Columbus, Ohio. Glenna was preceded in death by her parents, Glen and Betty Hatfield; her stillborn son, Joseph Glen; and her brother-in-law, John Houghton.

It is our hope that in her final hours Glenna found the peace she has been longing for. Glenna's earthly struggle is now over. Don't let this be your story reach out to someone for help. AmericanAddictionCenters.org 928-900-2021. Rev. Cheryl Ellis will officiate a private family interment where Glenna will be laid to rest with her mom and dad.

1 Peter 5:10 "And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.”
