“ I worked with Gloria in the 1980s at the Ohio Public Interest Campaign. She was a great organizer and a lovely colleague. Truly unforgettable.

“ I worked with Gloria for several years while we both worked for The Nature Conservancy. She was a wonderful teacher and loving activist. Her value in our poor rural community was deeply appreciated by all the residents whose lives were hugely impacted by the knowledge and skill she brought. The world was a better place with her in it and a poorer one without her. Peace Gloria.
