

Harold "Wick" Wicker Jr.

December 19, 1963 - December 23, 2019

Harold "Wick" Wicker Jr. was born in Columbus, Ohio on December 19, 1963 to Harold and W. Madeline "Petie" (Morris) Wicker. On December 23, 2019, Wick passed away at the age of 56 after a two week struggle in the ICU.

Wick was an avid sports fan. He was an Ohio guy, through and through. He never missed an OSU, Cleveland Indians and yes even a Cleveland Browns game. He loved to cook and had a real gift for comfort food. Most people will fondly remember his most famous meal — meatloaf and scallop potatoes. He loved rock and country music and had a knack for karaoke back in the day.

Wick was preceded in death by his mother, W. Madeline "Petie" Wicker; sister, Toni Bolin; brother, Shane Morris; Grandma and Grandpa Morris; uncle, Pat Morris; aunt, Rebecca "Becky" Riley; aunt, Gwendolyn "Ninny" Morris; step-son, Jason Smith; and nephews, Mitchell and Joshua Bolin. He is survived in death by his father, Harold Wicker Sr.; daughter, Kayla Wicker; sisters, Tami Speakman (Glenn Speakman), Traci Wicker, Tara Wicker; and brothers, Paul Wicker (Nichole Wicker), Sean Morris (Angie Morris), Scott Morris and several aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Mr. Harold "Wick" Wicker Jr.

“ What a great person and nephew you were. I miss you so much. I prayed so hard for you to recover and then finally I just prayed that God wouldn't let you suffer. As hard as it was to lose you, I knew you wouldn't want to live with the eventual outcome. I will miss that awesome laugh and your great sense of humor. You were always special to me and I promise to keep your memory alive. Give everyone a hug and kiss for me. I'll be there and hope you are the one to greet me. I love Wick.

“ I am so saddened by Wick's passing. He and I constantly picked at each other and his laugh was infectious! Gone too soon but I will cherish the memories. Even though we were not family, he always introduced me as his sister in law. That always made me smile. Fly high Wick.

“ I can't believe this. Grew up down the street. Remember all the kickball games in the "circle" and riding bikes. All the neighborhood girls thought he was dreamy, including me. Sending prayers to his family for healing their hearts.

“ Hey Wick, I can't believe I have to finish this journey all by myself without you as my trusty sidekick. We have always been close from little kids to grown ups, always laughing especially since I became sober 😭 I won't be able to call you anymore about our commercials we laugh our asses off about or the ones we just had to call and tell each other about!! You are my best friend Wick not just my brother and what a brother you were. You are a very caring, loving, with the biggest heart of anyone I knew especially the ones you loved. I am going to miss your laugh and your kindness. You would help anyone who needed it even tho sometimes you couldn't. I've seen you beat cancer 3 times and still make time to help others. I love you Wick, and I am going to miss you every day all day! Till I see you again baby brother....I love you and will forever ❤️ ❤️ Fly High with the Angels 🍷🍷
