

Harry Edison Taylor III

February 28, 1958 - May 28, 2024

Harry Edison Taylor III, beloved friend and long-time resident of Gahanna passed away, on May 28, 2024. Harry was born on February 28, 1958, in Wheeling, West Virginia. Both of his parents preceded him in death.

He loved playing his guitar and was a history, science and music enthusiast. His sense of humor brought much joy to all who knew him. He was an employee of The Mug Pizza and Pub, for many years. Harry is survived by many loved ones and dear friends.

We would like to thank Day Funeral Service and the OSU Hospice staff for taking care of Harry, while he was in their care. Donations are appreciated to ohioshospice.org (Newark/Columbus Region), in Harry's memory, for their continued service to others.

Reverend Clara Kwon will lead a memorial service, for Harry, on June 22nd, at Stonybrook United Methodist Church, 485 Cherry Bottom Rd. Gahanna, Ohio 43230, in the Wesley Chapel. Friends are welcome to come and celebrate Harry's life, at 10:00am.
