“ Jack gave me my first "real" job at Roger Pharmacy when I was in high school in the 60's. He was a great mentor and friend who entrusted me with many and varied responsibilities that enabled me to learn and grow as a young person. As I reflect on those memorable years, I think of Jack's energy and friendly enthusiasm for new ideas and projects around the store that I was able to participate.

It's been over 50 years, but I still hold many positive memories of Jack.

Rest in peace.

“ I had not seen Jack for 50 years, since the mid-1960's, when I was a teenager, working part-time at Roger Pharmacy, 2710 E. Main street in Bexley. But I still have fond memories of working for him. He was a good boss and a friendly guy, letting me do an array of tasks, like running the cash register, sorting the returnable coke bottles in the backroom, stocking the shelves, and even delivering prescriptions in an old station wagon. It's nice to look back on your life and remember milestones such as that, and the folks like Jack who were key parts of it all. Rest in peace Jack.

“ I have such fond memories of many times spent with the family. Jack always had a smile for me and asked how I was, even though I was a child. He was such a kind man. May his memory be blessing to his family and friends.

I have spent many years admiring Jack. As a periodic house guest he made me feel welcome through out those years. We took a fine walk through the woods that I'll always cherish. And then there was the time he tried on all my Native American jewelry, thick with silver and turquoise stones. The twinkle in his eye was so fine and his deep laugh made me happy. I loved it that he potted down at the barn with the John Deere. Intelligent, gentle, kind, generous in spirit, a deep and abiding strong character, a protector, a gentleman in every aspect. Such a grand husband. I adored him and still do.

My very heart felt condolences to all the members of his family, Ellen, Dan and Ben and oh so especially to my dearest friend Doris. I am glad that his grandchildren got to know him well. We are fortunate to have known him and sad that he is now gone.
