

Mr James E. English

August 9, 1953 - December 15, 2021

James E. English, 68, passed away peacefully at home in Lancaster, OH with his daughter by his side on December 15, 2021.

Jim was born August 9, 1953. He was a Lancaster High graduate, a proud Marine Veteran, and a hard working diesel mechanic until his retirement.

He loved his 3 daughters more than anything except maybe the occasional Cowboys game. I can hear him now, "how 'bout them Cowboys!"

Besides spending time with his family, he loved to golf, hunt, fish, and of course watch every major sporting event ever aired.

Jim was loved by everyone who met him and there wasn't anything he wouldn't do for someone. His big heart, humor, and love for his family is what will be missed the most.

He is survived by his three daughters, Pam (Jeff) Lehman, Christina (Morris) Hicks, Jamie (Matt) Woodson, 16 grandchildren, two brothers, one sister, and many nieces and nephews.

Day Funeral Service will provide cremation services. A celebration of life will be announced after the new year.

“ One of the best guys I that I had the pleasure to know . True friend , from day one at Hogan we became friends . Hell he talked me into moving to Macon GA and work with him 😳 , did I say a friend 😭 love ya big Jim but you knew I had to go . If you ever needed real help and asked him he wouldn't hesitate, he would be on his way ! Love you my friend you will be missed . Never forgotten .

“ I first met Jimbo, which is what I called him, at Hogan, where I worked in the office and he was a mechanic. He was such a kind and funny person. He will be missed and never forgotten by every person that was lucky enough to know him.
