“ What can I say about James Lawwell. He was one of my best friends- brother by another Mother. He was honest, hard working, funny, loyal and loveable man. He worked hard and played hard. I've known him since 6th grade. We spent many Friday nights at the skating rink as kids, and many weekends drinking beer riding around in golf carts at the campground. He was one in million with a contagious laugh. Life will never be the same. Fly high brother James. I love you always.
