“ I went to highschool with Jean. She graduated a year ahead of me and we kept in touch for a long time. In fact, I visited her in the hospital when her 1st daughter was born and I brought her baby a doll as a gift. After we both married, we lost touch with each other but I always thought about her and our school days. She lived on Franklin Ave and I lived on Bryden Rd across from St Anne's Hospital, and walked to school together most day through Franklin Park. She was always a sweet person with a kind, friendly personality. I'm happy I knew her.
