January 13, 1941 - May 25, 2023

A Celebration of Life for Jerry Comisford, age 82, of Granville, Ohio will be held at 1:00pm on Saturday, June 3, 2023, at Spring Hills Baptist Church, 1820 Newark Granville Road, Granville, Ohio 43023 with Pastor Tom Pound officiating. The family will receive friends and family from 11:00am to 1:00pm prior to the service.

Jerry passed away peacefully on May 25, 2023, following a thankfully brief, but valiantly fought, battle with cancer.

Jerry was born to the late Marcia (Abel) and Charles B. Comisford in 1941. He graduated from Alexandria High School in 1958. He married his life-long love, Judith Ann (Shumaker) in 1963.

He was a hard worker, and he had an adventurous spirit. At different times in his life, he raced cars, jumped out of airplanes, and tried to wrestle an alligator. He enjoyed snow and waterskiing, mountain bike riding and kayaking. He lived in and explored Brazil during his career at Lucent Technologies, where he began his career in the mail room and rose through the management ranks. He was still riding his motorcycle at 81.

He was a devoted father and grandfather, and he will be greatly missed by his family and friends. He was a very well-liked and respected man who made many friends and socialized frequently. He will be missed by folks at his winter home in Florida and at the Buckeye Lake Amvets.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Bruce and David. He is survived by Judy; sons, Tracy and Tom (Amy); grandchildren, Scott, Ross, Joey, Danielle and Caroline, Jamie and Carter Comisford and Chelsi Burns (Andy); and great-granddaughter, Ava Burns; as well as brothers, Richard (Sharon) and John; and sister, Kathy (Wayne) Hall.
