

Jodi Lee Monroe

December 8, 1975 - December 17, 2024

Jodi Monroe, 49, of Lancaster, Ohio, formerly of Steubenville, Ohio, passed away suddenly on December 17, 2024, at Fairfield Medical Center.

Born on December 8, 1975, in Steubenville, Ohio, she was the beloved daughter of the late Frederick Monroe and her late stepmother, Lori Hardwick Monroe. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her grandparents, John Monroe Sr. and Dolores Monroe.

Jodi was an Expungement/Sealing Clerk at the Franklin County Clerk of Courts, where she worked for seventeen years. Jodi loved to read in her spare time; books kept her sane, as she would say. She also loved getting tattoos, which she considered her therapy. She adored her two cats, Max, and Freya.

Jodi is survived by her two siblings: Bryan Monroe of Bethany, West Virginia and Cierra Hardwick of Newark, Ohio; seven nieces and nephews: Lexi, Jayden, Brennan, Zane, Kaleigh, Kathrine, and Kyra; and a great-niece named Iris. They were her world, and she loved them all dearly. Additionally, she had a select few friends whom she loved and considered her family.

As per Jodi's wishes, there will be no visitation, and a private service will be held at the discretion of her family. If you would like to donate, the family kindly requests considering any animal rescue or animal shelter.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Jodi Monroe.

“ I only communicated with Miss Jodi remotely because of our respective work. She was so kind, considerate, patient, and helpful when it came to our clients seeking information or assistance from the court. Miss Jodi truly made a difference in their lives and she will be missed. Sending our warm thoughts and condolences to her friends, family, and pets. Sincerely, Donna and the team at Advocating Opportunity
