

John Franklin Barksdale

October 2, 1946 - July 1, 2024

John F. Barksdale II departed this world on July 1, 2024, surrounded by loved ones.

John was born in Columbus, Ohio on October 2, 1946, to proud parents Willie Lee and Margaret Barksdale. He attended Columbus Public Schools.

John loved the Lord. He always kept his bible near him. He had a smile that could light up any room. He had an eye for clothes and cars. He was the best dressed in Columbus cruising around in his pink Cadillac.

John loved him a good meal; as soon as you turned your back he would swipe your food and look at you like you did something wrong. John loved hanging with his dog Max, watching the Dallas Cowboys and he loved anything red and black.

John is preceded in death by his parents; sister, Juanita; brother, William; and daughter, Nicole.

Left to remember him are his children: daughter, Teresa (Marlin) Seals; sons, John (Quatessia) Barksdale III, Jermaine (Wakesha) Barksdale Sr.; grandchildren, Fredrina, Tyresha, Jasmine, Jermaine Jr., London, Kevin, Tiziana, Brian, Lisa; thirteen great-grandchildren; niece Ronnita; nephew Curtis; and a host of cousins and friends.

The family will honor John in a private ceremony.

John will truly be missed and never forgotten.

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of John Barksdale.
