“ I remember the day that John and Marilyn confessed Christ as their Saviour and Lord. What a transformation of grace began that day! Now their faith has become sight and they dwell in the presence of our loving Lord, where there is fullness of joy! I thank God for enabling me to be a friend.

“ John & Mert were the epitome of a blessing to my husband & I when we started worshipping with them at First Baptist!! They were full of love and joy and a gift to my heart as they accepted us with open arms !! We had just moved to Ohio from Ky and they were the sweetest blessing we were gifted upon moving there—for they just showed the sweetest love and friendship to us!!!! We were truly blessed to have them in our life-journey💜. May they rest in the arms of Jesus!!

“ John & Mert were a shining example of true love, never one without the other. John's engaging smile was a light drawing you to him & Mert's ornery, loving, mischievous smile made you just rush to those precious & loving arms. I will always see her sitting on the back row at FBC Lancaster & you would turn... knowing someone was watching & see that beautiful face smiling & waiting for you to notice that she had a hug to give and you would rush to receive it. Their loving support in prayer to my sons ministry will never be forgotten. I am grateful for the privilege of knowing them, being impacted by their dedication to our Savior & sharing in the hope of our eternity together!!! On this side of heaven & from my personal perspective: Well done John & Mert, I love you & will miss you greatly.💕💕

“ I met John and Marilyn while entering the singing gales with their son Scott. John and Marilyn were instantly II parents and their home was our second home. They never missed a concert they always filmed at concerts. they were truly in my opinion the epitome of what marrying or being with your best friend would be. They loved each other very very much and in they also loved everyone else too. I can remember being scolded by Marilyn for skipping school and then getting a big hug before leaving. I hope and pray that the family will have strength and courage to get through this devastating terrible time. I will keep my memories of John and Marilyn forever.

“ John and Marilyn were such a strong presence during my high school years. They were at every choir concert and always lending a helping hand to us kids! John’s smile and laugh could light a room and Marilyn’s warm embrace was always welcomed. I will always think of them fondly and I am encouraged to know they are resting in the arms of their Savior together. I am also sending much love to their children and grandchildren at this time.
