“ The top left picture is the first time I remember meeting my dad and his family. ...(me, Scott, Johnny, dad) it's was Christmas so my brother Scott drove over to meet me. This was the one and only time I saw him. I was 17.

Bottom left is one of my many trips up to see him. (Dad, Johnny, me and my son Dustin). The other explain themself. (Me and my daddy) Dad always had lots of friends and family around him that loved him. So I never got a lot of one on one time with him. My foundest memories will be the last few days I got to spend with him in hospice....just me and him. I will forever cherish him reaching out for my hand and squeezing it, staring me in my eyes. Or him reaching up to touch my face.

We know, no words needed to be spoken.

Debbie..... thank you thank you for all you do and have done for your mom and daddy John. I love you!! Jessica thanks for being there as well. Y'all keep Myrna close to you. Praying God help her get through this time. Love Kim

“ When we were young and mom had to work on Sundays, John would usually take us to do something. A few times we went to the Fairfield airport to ride a plane. Mostly we would go to the Chuck wagon for an ice cream cone and then drive around the dog pound. Back then they had a driveway that circled the pound and the dogs could walk out into cages for you to see them. One time he actually let us take one home. First he took us and our scraggly new dog (because of course we had pick the saddest looking one) to Rising Park to play. While there we were all trying to think of the perfect name for our new treasured pet when John says, "You better name it Sorry, because I have a feeling when your mother sees it she's gonna say "Sorry" you can't keep it"! .... We had "Sorry" for quite a long time! Thank you John for that memory!
