

Judy Anne May

January 7, 1957 - February 9, 2020

Judy Anne May, born January 7, 1957, departed to be with her Lord and Savior in her sleep on February 9, 2020 at age 63, of lung cancer as a smoker. She is preceded in death by her parents, John D. and Jean (Wolfe, Moore) May and beloved grandmother, Dorothy "Buppy" (Porter) Wolfe. Judy is survived by her son, Nathan May, and her siblings, James R. & Marianne May, Tom & Martha Moore, and John David & Sue May; first cousins, Brian, Patrick, Rick, Tracy and David; nieces, Megan and Melissa; and nephews, Matt, George and Jimmy.

She graduated from Gahanna Lincoln High School in 1975. Since then, Judy has been a loyal and devoted, self-supporting employee starting after high school as a motor vehicles deputy register, notary public, then many years at the AT&T Call Center by Worthington Mall, and lastly, for the Columbus Division of Water. She was a very organized, independent, strong willed, and determined woman with good common sense intelligence.

Her son, Nathan, is the pride of her life and her most cherished legacy. Her last days in her home were assisted by hospice and Griswold Home Care. A graveside service was attended by her extended family and conducted by her cousin, Patrick McKinley. She is buried near loved ones in Mifflin Cemetery, Gahanna.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I have many fond memories of Judy when I was growing up on Brookhaven Dr. She was my sister Connies best friend and she was so pretty and kind. May God Bless and you find comfort in your memories.
