September 17, 1917 - March 26, 2020

Katherine Alice (Walker) Lucas passed peacefully March 26, 2020 at Creekside at the Village, Columbus, Ohio. She was born on September 17, 1917 in Pamplin, Virginia, the second child of Henry Joseph and Elsie May (Watts) Walker. Katherine is preceded in death by her parents; her husband of nearly 55 years, Wayman B. Lucas; siblings, Norman Walker, Corrine Selby, Howard Walker, Faye Turner and Olga Walker. She is survived by sister, Venice Harvey (Wayne, NJ); nephews, Wilbur (Pamela) Turner (Millersville, MD) and Sherwood (Daria) Harvey (Wayne, NJ); niece, Robin Brown (Centennial CO); and many friends. Katherine rose to the rank of manager at the Ohio Department of Workers' Compensation, where she was employed until her retirement. Katherine was gracious and the definition of elegance, a smart-dresser, loyal friend, and great cook. She had an amazing memory, loved to read and solve crossword puzzles. She told great stories, and her conversations were full of intricate details of the special occasions she enjoyed, the people she encountered and places she traveled. A consummate role-model, she freely mentored and advised women across generations. Katherine is missed by those who she always referred to as "friends who are like family", including Wilma McClung, Karen Williams Hubbard, James S. Cox, Cynthia Barnett, Ranford Hopkins, Michael Shelby, Malia and Christine Hoadley, Deborah and Doug Tracy, Sue,

Norm and Marla Hoyle, LaVerne Dukes King, Wanda Isbell-Hardy, guardian angel Cornelius Hairston and many others. The family is grateful to the staff of Creekside at the Village.
