

Kathleen Sue Dix

September 12, 1951 - April 12, 2024

Kathleen Dix, beloved daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, and friend, was called to her heavenly home on April 12th, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of love, kindness, and cherished memories. She was born on September 12th, 1951, to Loreen and Richard Dix.

Throughout her life, Kathleen was known for her gentle spirit, unwavering compassion, and boundless generosity. She touched the lives of all who knew her with her warm smile and caring nature. Kathleen's presence lit up every room she entered and her infectious laughter brought joy to those around her. Kathleen found solace and strength in her relationship with Jesus Christ. She embraced His teachings with fervent devotion, finding peace in prayer and solace in the Scriptures.

Kathleen found immense joy in spending time with her family, friends, and animals. She cherished the time she spent on her farm caring for her family and animals, riding horses, playing the piano, dancing and laughing with her children. Kathleen's love knew no bounds and she poured her heart and soul into a life full of love and laughter.

Kathleen's memory will be forever cherished by her three children, Maria Epling, Richard Epling (Stephanie), and Oliver McAuley (Lindsey); her siblings, Barbara Durnim, Rebecca Graham; ten grandchildren; several nieces and nephews; as well as all those who were blessed enough to know her throughout her life. Though she has been called home to her Heavenly Father, Kathleen's legacy of faith, love, and compassion will continue to inspire and live on through the lives she touched during her journey here on Earth.

A celebration of Kathleen's life will be held on April 30th at Union Cemetery.

As we mourn the loss of Kathleen, let us take comfort in the knowledge that she now rests in the arms of her Savior, free from pain and suffering, and surrounded by the eternal light of God's love. May her soul find peace and eternal rest in the heavenly kingdom, where she will dwell in the presence of the Lord forevermore. Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Kathleen Dix.
