I love you. I am so sorry you are not here with us. Life will not be the same .

Brenda Collins - October 10, 2018 at 06:08 PM

Kristy, and her sister Misty were members of my youth group at Homeland Church in Grove City, the "Teens of Thunder". She was always so pleasant to be around. My prayers, and condolences go out to all of her family and friends. May God comfort us in our time of loss.

Kristi fly high baby girl. That last day in my garage be for ambulance rushed u away will forever b etched in my mind. I'm unable yet to go out there will I ever enter back out there only time will tell. I love u and don't worry about Aaron moms got this.. I hope....he needs time for u were his everything. He came got ur things we laughed about the colored markers cause earlier that last day I had just given them to u. It pains me that there wasn't any gathering for all of us loved u . but I see this way. I will never have say goodbye for Hello Beautiful we I see u again. Leave this with a promise from mom to u. I will not rest till it's known what really happen and Newark Paramedics feel the rath.
