Graveside services as well as a Celebration of Life will be held at a future date yet to be determined. The family requests that in lieu of flowers that you simply help someone that you know is in need the way he quietly did during his life -be it a homeless person, a stray animal, or a friend that is in need. It doesn't have to be monetary -a donation of food, clothing or help mowing a lawn, teaching a skill; something that is truly needed in that time. He loved flowers but would rather see them thriving in a garden so please plant one to remember him by. Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Larry M. Branum.
