

Larry Landis

March 3, 1942 - April 20, 2017

Larry J. Landis, 75, of Galloway, Ohio, passed away in his backyard on April 20, 2017, at approximately 3:30 pm. Born on March 3, 1942, in Steubenville, Ohio, he married his high school sweetheart, Marsha Hooper, on her 20th birthday, August 25, 1962, in their hometown of Weirton, West Virginia. Everyone has a story about how Larry helped them or at least made them laugh—from neighbors to business associates, to several generations of kids who were entertained and inspired by him. Larry loved to be helpful. He also loved his Harley and was a long-time enthusiast. A graduate of Weir High and WVU, Larry worked as a Human Resources Vice President, and later as a substitute teacher and HR consultant. Larry lit up when his nieces and nephews and then grandchildren and great-nieces and great-nephews came running to him with glad cries of “Pappap!” or “Uncle Larry!” He loved to clown for the kids—anything to make them laugh. He unfailingly did an Egyptian dance in the driveway in the headlights of any vehicle containing kids. You could always see him at his grandchildren’s track meets, plays, orchestra concerts, cross country events, and award ceremonies, beaming with pride. Larry is survived by his wife of 54 years, Marsha; daughter, Kimberly Landis; son-in-spirit, David Nathans; son, Robert (Linda) Landis; grand-daughters, Sierra and Aja Nathans; grandson, Benjamin Landis; brother, William Landis; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law; many beloved nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. In lieu of flowers, you may send a donation to the Mid-Ohio Foodbank, and spread awareness of the Summer Food Service

Program for disadvantaged children. "When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation, and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart. Then I shall bow, with humble adoration, and then proclaim 'My God, how great Thou art.'"

~Elvis Presley, How Great Thou Art
