

Leah Phillips Allbright Young

July 21, 1974 - November 20, 2021

Leah Phillips Allbright Young went to be with Jesus, sooner than we would have liked her to, on November 20, 2021.

Leah was born in Columbus, Ohio on July 21, 1974, to J. Kimberly Herve and Jack A. Burns. She was predeceased by her first husband, Jason M-A. Allbright, grandfathers Dean Phillips and Willard Burns, stepfather Brent L. Elwood, niece June Elwood, adopted grandmother LaRea Carter and stepdaughter Ella Young.

Leah left behind her husband Jason (Jake) Young, her adored children Hayley, Jacob and Zachary Allbright, stepchildren Austin Martin, Ethan, and Emma Young. She was a proud sibling to her sister Ashley Addison (Barry), Brothers Anthony Burns (Melissa), Stephen Burns, Elijah Darnall (Emily), Nathaniel Elwood (Kristin), Kavan Elwood (Lacie), Addison Elwood (Kacy), Sisters Olivia Elwood (Enrique) and Harmony Burns. Leah also left behind her cherished granddaughter Amelia Rose and adored nieces and nephews Kayla, Madelyn, Delaney, Jackson, Josie, Norah, Josslyn, Camdyn, Aurora, Riley, Ezra, Brentley, Mason, Barry and Rosie (and she could tell you every single one of their birthdays off the top of her head!), brother-in-laws Andrew (Heather) and Jared Allbright and adopted mother Sandra Lucas.

Leah was the oldest of her 9 siblings and was the most incredible "Sissy" that a sibling could have asked for, or ever even imagined and they all looked to her as the matriarch and “the rock of the family”.

Since Leah became a sister at the age of 5 years old, she was selfless, nurturing, and affectionate and it only intensified as she matured and became a mother.

Leah was an amazing example to everyone blessed enough to be around her with her incredible work ethic, her perseverance in tough circumstances and her natural ability to lead a team or take control when the situation arose. She had a beautiful, contagious smile and would light up the room with her matchless personality. Leah had a gift of not only making friends with everyone, but to be loved by everyone that knew her.

Leah loved to joke around, play pranks on people, and laugh until tears ran down her legs. She was an incredible baker, cake decorator, gift giver and memory maker. Leah lived for spending quality time with her family and friends. She was known for movie nights at the ABE Manor driving people crazy with her narrations. She had a special way of making people feel loved, special, and welcomed.

Leah was beyond generous, loved selflessly and was truly a beacon of light to her family, friends, and coworkers. Her light will always shine.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the diaTribe Foundation. The diaTribe Foundation was founded with a mission to improve the lives of people with diabetes and prediabetes, and to advocate for action. <https://diatribe.org/foundation/>

Day Funeral Service is honored to serve the family of Ms. Allbright.

“ God could never have given me a more beautiful gift! She began as my baby granddaughter and she left as my beloved daughter She was so good to me always. She was as near perfect as any person could be. I found no fault in her and I long to be with her. More to be desired was she than gold, yay than much fine gold; sweeter also than the honey from the honeycomb. I miss my baby girl. Leah,

“ This is still so surreal to me.. I miss you so much! I’m so grateful that God allowed our paths to cross, I don’t think in all my life of working that I enjoyed working with a person such as yourself..not only co workers but we became family..you made such an impact at this place that there hasn’t been a day yet that your name is not mentioned even by people who didn’t meet you in person but had the chance to talk with you over phone could still feel your love and joyous heart. Such a loving kind person that would go out of her way for anyone and would always make sure no one felt left out! I miss your random crazy text and FaceTime, I would left so hard as if you were in the room telling the joke in person. Thank you for your joy, Laughter, and smile that would light up a room, thank you for always having an encouraging word, Thank you most of all for your friendship! Love “ Banana” ☐
