

Mr Lee Kiger

August 16, 1959 - January 30, 2022

Lee Kiger, 62, of Lancaster, Ohio, was born on August 16, 1959, and died the morning of January 30, 2022 at the Pickering House surrounded by his family. He was a very loyal fan to the Cleveland Browns, loved Judas Priest and Iron Maiden, and loved making and racing slot cars. He had the best 80's rocker hair, and was very proud of it. He loved the sunshine and hot Summer days. He cherished his daughters, and would do anything for them. He will be very missed by everyone and his kitty Dawn. He was retired from Norwesco Inc. after working very hard for 32 years. He took much pride in his work and his home. Lee is survived by his two daughters; Lacey (Travis) Kiger, and Bailee (Nathaniel) Kiger, both of Lancaster; Two Grandchildren, Braiden and Trevin Borgen; Sister, Sheree Baker, and Brother, Chad Kiger, both also from Lancaster; Special friends, Darrell and Tina Appel, and Scott Parrish, all from Lancaster. He was preceded in death by his Parents, Jack and Kathy Kiger, and Grandmother, Ethel Kiger. Cremation will take place at Day Funeral Service in Gahanna, with burial at a later date at Amanda Township Cemetery. A special thank you to Fairhope Hospice, who took amazing care of him in his last days.

Tribute Wall

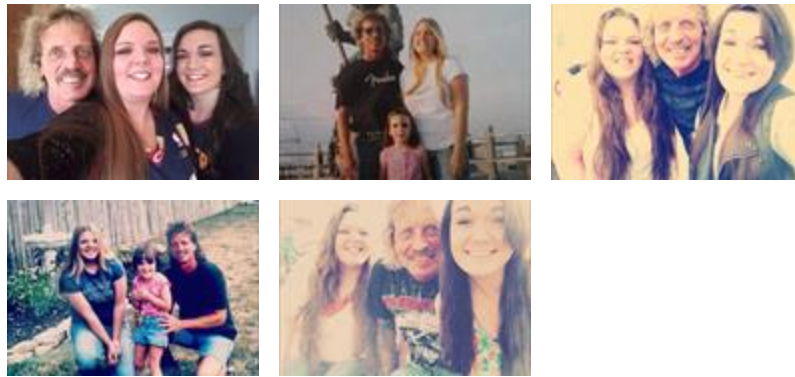

TS

“ Lee was a Good Friend of mine. He was caring. And was funny at times. R.I. P. My Dear Friend. My Deepest Condolences. Prayers to the Family. 🥹🙏💖
Tommy Smith

Tommy Smith - April 23, 2022 at 08:12 AM

LK

“ 11 files added to the tribute wall

Lacey Kiger - February 04, 2022 at 09:02 PM