“ Hmmm, memories. Where should I begin. I had the privilege and honor to call you my sister. We made the best of our childhood growing up, I still remember going to wine and cheese emporium for a dogwood. Our memories growing up are none that will ever be forgotten. You always said you had my back and now I know I have a guardian angel who will forever look out for me and have my back. Love you babysister, till we meet again.

“ Dear sweet Lesley. I never got the chance to meet you. You sounded like such a wonderful person from what your brother has shared with me. I loved seeing pics of you happy with Mandy. I am deeply saddened but know you are in heaven watching over your loved ones. I promise to take care of your brother who I love with all my heart. To hold his hand and comfort him during this difficult time. Sending love and hugs to you up in heaven sweet Lesley! ❤️
