“ My heart is so heavy hearing of the passing of Linda. 💔 Linda wasn't just a coworker of mine, she became a such dear friend to me. From alllll the fun nights out, the chaos at work, the laughter and unforgettable memories... she brought so much light and joy into every single moment we shared together. Her positivity and brightness at work, and towards life in general was literallllly contagious and she made every shift way more enjoyable, I loved seeing her name on the list to work with me! Her silliness when we drank together was soo unmatched, and she was always taking the funniest pictures and videos that I'll now forever cherish, and just the genuine love that she gave to the people she cared about was really something rare to find these days.. even when we no longer worked together, she always made sure to keep in touch over the years. ❤️ Linda loved being a grandma, she loved her friends and enjoying life to the fullest, and she sure did love her Ohio State Buckeyes! She has really touched so many hearts.

I'll forever be grateful for the memories we shared and the friendship we built. You will always be remembered, Linda. Gone far too soon, but never forgotten. Until we meet again, friend. ☐ 📷

“ I met Linda several years ago since she was a friend of my father. She was always the sweetest and nicest person. I last saw her 3 weeks ago I knew she didn't feel well but she was still so nice. She is a friend who will be missed by many.
